MRS. DONALD LEE WILLIAMS
the former Miss Annette Beaty

Wed In Double Ring Ceremony

Miss Annette Beaty, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Albert Beaty, junior of Appomattox, Virginia, became the bride of Donald Lee Williams at 8 p.m. Saturday at Liberty Baptist Church in Appomattox.

The groom is the son of Mrs. Edith Williams of Appomattox, and the late Mr. George Samuel Williams.

The double ring ceremony was performed by Dr. Thomas D. Lea. Wedding music was provided by Miss Nancye Mathews, organist, and C. C. Poe, Junior, uncle of the bride, vocalist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of candlelight satin and imported lace fashioned with a natural waistline, Victorian neck and Bishop sleeves. The fitted bodice was enhanced with lace which extended down the front of the bell shaped skirt and lace insets high-lighted the long full sleeves. The tubular chapel train was bordered in scalloped lace and was appliqued with lace motifs. Her mantilla veil of silk illusion was edged with Alencon lace. She carried a white, ivory, inlaid Bible centered with a white Bridal orchid and showered with white pom pom mums and red Forever Yours roses.

Miss Virginia Fay Beaty, sister of the bride, was honor attendant. She wore a slipper length gown of Christmas red velvet with a Victorian neckline and elbow length sleeves with a deep ruffle over candlelight imported lace. She carried a kissing ball of boxwood and mistletoe accented with red velvet ribbons.

Bridesmaids were Deborah Caldwell and Lucy Martin, both of Appomattox, Carole Beaty, of Appomattox, sister of the bride; and Miriam Beaty of Berkeley Heights, New Jersey, cousin of the bride, were junior bridesmaids. Tricia LeAnn Poe of Newport News, cousin of the bride was flower girl. Their dresses were the same as that of the honor attendant.

James Albert Beaty, III, brother of the bride was ring bearer. He wore a gray suit with black velvet accents.

George Williams was his brother's best man. Ushers were Robert Williams and Picky Williams, of Appomattox, brothers of the groom; Richard Poe of Appomattox, uncle of the bride; Ernest Harris and Cecil Nash, both of Appomattox. They wore gray tuxedos with black velvet trimming.

After a reception in the church fellowship hall, the couple left on a wedding trip. They will live in Appomattox.

Mrs. Williams is a graduate of Appomattox County High School and is attending Central Virginia Community College.

Mr. Williams is also a graduate of Appomattox County High School and is employed at Simplimatic Engineering Co. in Lynchburg.

Local Quartet To Take Part In TV Program

"The Rocks Quartet" will be going to Bristol Thursday, Dec. 23 to tape and be part of a Gospel Sing. The program is shown on Sunday, on Channel 10 at 9:00 a.m. They hope to be on television the following Sunday, December 26 or the Sunday after that.

U. D. C. Meeting

The Appomattox Chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy met for the regular monthly meeting and annual Christmas party Thursday night December 16, 1971 at the County Library. Hostesses were Mrs. Otho Martin, Jr., Mrs. C. D. Lewis, Mrs. J. W. Childers, Mrs. Clark Moore, Mrs. Edmund Hillsman, and Mrs. Marshall Cunningham.

The members voted to have a monument in memorial to the Confederate Soldiers placed at the Confederate Cemetery at the Appomattox National Historical Park. It was decided to have this monument in place by the anniversary of the Surrender at Appomattox, April 9, 1972. The Chapter will have a Dedication Ceremony that day in commemoration.

Nineteen books to be given to the McGuire Veterans Hospital in Richmond have been donated by four sisters who are members of the Chapter. They are Mrs. Lena Eversole, Mrs. C.D. Lewis, Mrs. Schuyler Marshall and Mrs. Ben Deane. Mrs. Albert Zastrow also donated one book.

The Program Chairman Mrs. Walter Ferrell, gave an interesting and informative talk on "Christmas at Williamsburg". She told of how many of our traditions of today originated.

Members exchanged gifts, after which refreshments were served by the hostesses.

Anyone who views the program and enjoys it is invited to mail a card to the program. It will be appreciated by the Rocks Quartet.
